Take a Closer Look

Lion 2000

Most freshmen come into high school and freak out about it. Sophomores have been here long enough to glance at it and somewhat come out of their shell. Juniors come into their third year and begin to shrug it off and deal with it. And seniors, who cannot wait to graduate, completely learn not to pay attention to it.

What in the world is "it" you ask? "It's" worrying about what other people think. As we learn and grow each day, and work through everyday things, "it" does not matter as much anymore. Being yourself is all that really counts in the long run.

Take a closer look. Try to enjoy life to its fullest. You will learn to shrug "it" off too.

Student Body Crowns Gonzalez, Ward

The tradition of Liberty's Top Ten Homecoming Court was broken by a computer glitch and became an unforgettable top sixteen. The Liberty student body voted for Joey Gonzalez as Homecoming King and Michal Ward as Homecoming Queen. Returning from their colleges, reigning King Garrett Kelley and Queen Ginny Weirick turned the honor over to this year's royalty.

Students showed thier school spirit throughout the week with costumes: Hawaiian shirts, sports wear, crazy stlyes, and the traditional Liberty colors, Cardinal and Gold.

A tough decision by the judges, the float competition was won by the Sophomore Class of 2002.

Although the Lions gave it their all in the game, it was Ygancio Valley's game in the end. In spite of their loss, the Lions still celebrated a successful Homecoming for 1999.

Juniors

With the help of the class officers Casey Billingsley, president; Brandi Schwitters, vice-president; Angelo Lorenzetti, secretary; Clark Rudd, treasurer; and advisors Ms. Ilene Foster and Mr. Darren Price; the juniors enjoyed a great year.

Activities included building the float for the Homecoming Parade, the Class of 2001 dressed up a lion as a witch stirring a warrior in a pot and chose as a theme "Brew the Warriors"

Money raising activities included candy sales, and "Welcome to the Millenium Dance" The class also held their first dance off campus with the Junior Prom at the Centre in Concord.

Following a tradition established years ago the Class of 2001 put together a class t-shirt which was yellow with a lion on it saying bowdown.

Sophomores

"Wipe out the Warriors." These four little words stole first place for the sophomores in the float competition. It took a lot of dedication, but it paid off and couldn't have been done without the help of our class officers. With the help of advisors Mrs. Sharon Johnson and Mrs. Jeanne Glenn and Chris Gruller, president; Erin Kruz, vice-president; Kim Summers, secretary; and Amber Adams, treasurer the Sophomore Class enjoyed a successful Homecoming and a great year.

The Class of 2002 entered high school as the first class to have standards and benchmarks. Having to work harder than any other previous class, the Sophomores will also graduate in the 100th year of the school district.

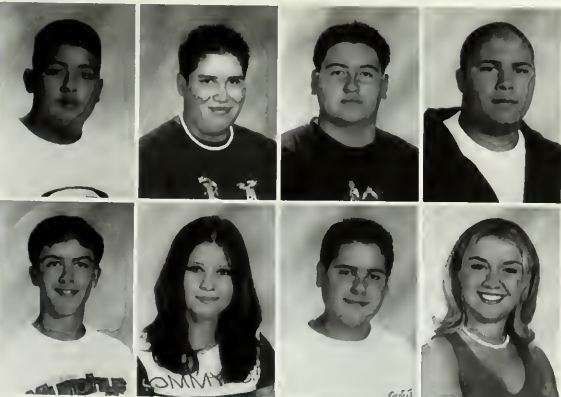

With two years left to leave their mark, the Class of 2002 strives to become a group to be remembered. Have a great time and try your hardest-Parents don't exaggerate when they say that these are the best years of our lives; they will pass in the blink of an eye.

Class of 2003

"Two-zero-zero-three, class of zero-three," shouted spirited freshmen at events through out the year. That's what this years freshmen were all about, school spirit and pride. Led by class advisors, Mrs. Julie Somerhalder and Mrs. Christine Zahn and the elected student council of our peers, Stacy DeBernardi, president; Ashley Sugimoto, Vice President; Ashley Brown; Ashley Sugimoto, Treasurer; Tami Sposito, secretary; made for a great year. We kept busy with sports, clubs and a variety of activities such as Homecoming float building where our floats theme was....

Coach Frost Relinquishes Varsity Job

With the solid running of Fred Kelley, MVP, most valuable back and captain; and shifty runner, Joe Ghiggeri; most valuable back; the Lions' Varsity Football Team clawed their way to a respectable record in the tough BVAL.

At their annual sports banquet, Head Coach Frost announced other award winners as Caleb Hargus, most valuable lineman, most inspirational and captain; Dale Roberts, most valuable lineman; Chris Lemyre, Lion award; and Angelo Lorenzetti, coaches' award.

Surprising team members, staff, and the community, Coach Frost announced in January that he was stepping down as head coach. Citing goals achieved that he had set for himself six years ago as well as increased family commitments, Coach Frost relinquished control of the Varsity program.

New Coaches Unleash Lions

The 1999-2000 season was very successful for Liberty's water polo teams. Under the leadership of Seniors Jenn Knaus, Jodie Milburn and Kiel Olff, the Water Lions experienced many victories. All league members Kiel Olff, Dan Anderson, Chris Anderson, Shawna Shipley and Haley Pantle showed skill and determination throughout the season. The winning teams were coached by Rebecca Beal and Jerry Henderson. Water Polo shows promise for years to come.

Varsity Excels With 9-9 BVAL Record

Lead by team captains, Joe Ghiggheri and Brad Pingle, who were also named Most Valuable Players at the end of 2000 season, Varsity Lions had their best BVAL season ever. Under the guidance of a new staff of Head Coach Mark Johnson and Assistant Glen Stonebarger, they had a league record of nine wins and nine losses.

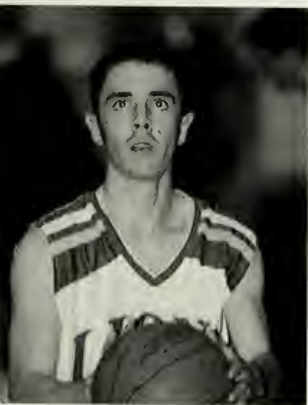

Despite predictions of a last place finish, the Lions came back and proved the sport writers to be incorrect and placed fifth in the Bay Valley Athletic League.

Varsity Finishes League in Fourth Place

Fighting opponents, field conditions, and the weather (late in the season) the Varsity boys' soccer team fought hard to attain fourth place with the last game of the season.

Down 2-0 to College Park at the half, the Lions roared back to score 3 goals to win it. Against Pinole Valley the conditions were so muddy that official play was canceled at half time, giving one team the victory. The two teams continued to play in mud and both were completely covered by the time they finished.

Earning their first trip to the NCS competition highlighted the Girl's Varsity soccer season. At NCS the girls earned a first round victory.

Led by the fine play of Sarah Burgess and coaching of Tony Martins, the Varsity team finished tied for second place in the BVAL with a 13-4-1 record. Overall the girls were 15-5-2 for the season.

With a number of starters returning for next season, the Lions are in good shape for the 2000-01 competition.

Varsity Dominates BVAL's Dual Meets

Team captains Mike Foti and Charlie Deardorff led the 2000 Liberty Varsity Wrestling team to a successful season, winning their seventh straight BVAL championship. They extended Liberty's dual meet record to 46 victories in a row.

League champions were Christian Bowerman number one seed at 121 pounds, Scot Garcia, Charlie Deardorff, Jake Showaker, and Fred Kelley. Ten wrestlers went to NCS, where they placed fifth; Bowerman and Garcia went to state. The heavy weights were the key to the big season, but the light weights earned honors at NCS.

The boys hosted the annual Lou Bronzan Invitational Tournament as well as the popular frosh-soph tourney in February.

Coach Greg Chappel continued to build an outstanding program with the youngsters in elementary school and the Delta Wrestling Club.

Dodson Leads CC Team in Building Year

With an abundance of new and energetic runners the cross country team had a building year. The distance team worked hard to put together a competitive squad on both the boys' and girls' teams. Leading the Boys' Varsity were third-year runners Kent Portue and Josh Almeida. Josh Dodd, Geoff Brown, Mike Short and first year runners Charlie Deardorff, Leo Castro and Jason Perez helped round off the team. The girls' squad, lead by Melodee Mesquite, Lindsay Henderson, Rachelle Milburn, Juana Madrigal, Jhila Tercheria and Jill Bucker, made great improvements during the season.

Most valuable runner and second team in BVAL, Devin Gallagher narrowly missed the State Meet by four places. Devin will surely be a contender for the State Meet in 2000 according to Coach John Dodson.

Golfers Capture BVAL Championship

"Fore!" Many golfers use this term numerous times in their career. Yet, this was not a term that the Liberty golfers used much this season. The Varsity team had their eye on the prize, and they headed to Paradise Valley, CA with confidence and solidity. Here they took home the BVAL Championship with their win over De La Salle.

Next, it was on to the Bridges Golf Course in San Ramon, CA for the North Coast Section Championships. All of the teams gave enormous effort, but our Liberty team won over Monte Vista by only one stroke. This is the first time in Liberty's history that the Varsity Golf team has captured the NCS title. It looks as though we have turned our bogies into birdies!

Middle School Students Enjoy Faire

Acting as the queen of the annual Renaissance Faire, Leslie Goldring reigned over the morning festivities on the "village green" near the computer lab and art classrooms. She was introduced to the attentive audience with the distinctive sound of two drummers as she took her throne to signal the start of festivities.

This year the Bristow Middle School joined in the fun as the Chamber Singers entertained them and others with excellent singing. Other activities included dancing, wreath making and ring tossing as well "mock" sword fights.

Mrs. Larraine Anderson and Mrs. Hillary Pedrotti should be commended for their fine efforts in organizing and running this annual event.

Audience Delights to Antics in Fall Play

"Upwind of Downstage" was the Fall offering for the Liberty Playmakers. It consisted of seven short skits that had no relation but the actors in them; all of whom played many different parts.

The fall production was very diverse as well and had a multitude of funny experiences with talent ranging from students and teachers. Mr. Chris Calabrese made a very believable Mark Anthony while Mr. Gene Clare made an even funnier, unbelievable Caesar.

Hosts for the evening were Matt Hess, an almost retired director, and Jessica Hinds, a social bee saving some foundation, both helped to make it very believable that the show was falling apart but not. Props broke, sets fell over, actors tripped, anything and everything that makes a "bad show" (excluding the lack of talent).

Brian Moore helped fulfill the comedy of the show as did Brian Rousseu, Tracy Schafer, Jeremy Hadley, Julie Manning, Angela Polemino, Sara Langlais and many more.

With a rock-hard cast and a die-for crew, it was little wonder that the Fall Play, "Upwind of Downstage" was a hit.

Disney's Holiday Parade

Opening marching season with an exciting half time show, Bob Smith emmerced himself into another year full of holiday parades, jazz clinics, late night drumline rehearsals, and Saturday competitions. With the biannual trip to Disneyland, the marching band enjoyed a successful holiday parade and a memorable field trip. Upon returning, Erin Treat was named Most Valuable Bandman for the '99 season.

For the third year in a row, the jazz band earned a unanimous superior at CMEA, also performing for the Glen Miller Orchestra and at Liberty's open house. Members of the jazz band also entertained residents of Sumerset at the first annual fundraiser, earning over $4,000.

Members also enjoyed their first year in competition for drumlines and winterguard. Both ended up earning 6th in their circuit.

Liberty Band finished the year off with a performance on Memorial Day at Union Cemetary.

With the CCC Fair Board changing the month of the annual county fair, the FFA was faced with a huge problem. Discussion among the membership, officer cadre, and advisor, Mr. Don Lopez, led to the creation of a special youth fair in July instead of finals week in June.

Part of the membership still wanted to show in June. However, there was some controversy about the status of members showing at either fair in respect to further competition.

CCC Fair Directors had made the month change for the lost week in July to the first week in June in order to have a better carnival and attract more visitors.

In April Mr. Lopez traveled to CSU, Fresno for the state FFA convention; several officers joined him as well.

Progress on the Lion 2000 was already underway in June with a trip to San Francisco for the editorial staff. Advisor Bill Batze and his new editors spent the afternoon chasing tennis balls, watching sea lions, and doing a little work in Golden Gate Park. The ideas that were developed in the Park established our style and outlined the book, along with creating a unique bond between the editors and their new boss.

In order to alleviate the problems that arise within the staff every year involving the theme and cover, the editorial staff created two theme and cover choices for the staff to vote upon. Winning by a long shot, this year's staff chose to "Take A Closer Look" into their futures.

Our hard-working and dedicated staff members can be proud of the many hours spent putting a book together that is unique and special. They can memorize each and every mistake in the final copy and wonder how it was overlooked, they can put their hard work on their shelves only to see the light twenty years later in reminiscence of the good 'ole days.

The editors of the Lion 2000 would like to thank the diligent and persistent members who sacrificed their ever important Saturdays and Tuesday afternoons to produce a product for the community to enjoy. We know how hard it is to roll out of bed with only the incentive of donuts to motivate you. Thanks for a great year and wonderful memories!

Leading Us Into 2000

Volunteer work is greatly appreciated everywhere. The biggest portion of volunteers at Liberty High School are the members of the 1999-2000 Leadership Class. Led by Ms. Kandy Elliott, these leaders contribute to almost everything on campus.

The officers, commissioners, and students of leadership work behind the scenes of rallies, assemblies, lunchtime activities, and major events. These students have the enormous responsibility of creating a successful Homecoming each year. This includes the football game, dance, rally, parade, and float building. Mr. Liberty is also made possible because of Leadership. This year alone, the Mr. Liberty contest raised $4,000 for the Student Emergency Relief Fund, an organization that helps students in financial need. All student elections are organized by the Leadership students.

As a positive new addition, Ms. Kandy Elliott created a monthly activity for the students to know one another better. A meeting at a chosen student's home provides a fun atmosphere for the students to enjoy the time they spend together. Ms. Elliott will not be with the Leadership students next year, but the class looks forward to more helping and fun.

"You would never be in a club that would have you as a member." Well, this old saying isn't true for Liberty High organizations and their wide diversity of students who belong. From Playmakers to Homemakers to Power of Unity, every club is available to Liberty students. Clubs are taken advantage of in large numbers. Students flock to clubs as a place to meet others and find an environment in which to thrive. The clubs at Liberty provide many events and activities for students to be involved in. The dances, plays and fundraisers keep Liberty's school spirit at a loud roar. Congratulations to all this years club and hope to see everyone next year.

Hargus Crowned as Mr.

Returning for a second year, Mr Liberty was a friendly competition among the ten young men who vied for the title which was earned by Caleb Hargus.

Part of the competition was sight reading of a musical selection which was captured by Caleb Hargus. Michael Borunda wowed the packed PAC audience with his professional dancing and walked away with the talent part of the evenings events.

Jay Westerlund was named Mr. Congeniality while Mark Snover and Bryan Wolfenbarger were named runners up to Caleb.

However, the real winner was the Student Emergency Relief fund that was swelled by over $4000 from this event.

Hess Shines in 'Man of La Mancha'

'To Dream the Impossible Dream,' was not only a phrase said, but reached by over 50 Liberty students, as they put on the musical Man of La Mancha. As it was technical director Bob Landrum's last year, the play held special meaning to the cast and crew.

The show was outstanding, with audiences loving every moment. Matt Hess as Man of La Mancha, proved anyone could achieve the Impossible Dream as he is accompanied on his journey by faithful sidekick Brian Moore, who provided more than a fair share of the comic relief.

Jessica Hinds was brilliant in her role as Aldonza, having to put up with problems no person would want to face. Others in the cast included: Christina Barmettler as the wife, innkeeper, Jake Lake, Stefanie Bremner, as the maid, Elise Gargalikis as the niece, and many, many more.

The cast was lucky as they reached their dream and put on a 4-star production. They all hope you reach your dreams too!

IT WAS JUST FOR FUN

Thomas.

We are so proud of you! Always look for the best in others. Stay true to your faith. Jer. 29:11.
Love you lots.Dad, Mom and Taryn :-)

Erin,

You've kept us young with your energy and enthusiastic endeavors. You have excelled in music and sports. We are blessed to have shared in your accomplishments.

Follow your dreams as you go forth to college and adulthood and your future will be filled with rewards of happiness.

You have brought joy to our lives each day of your life. We love you so much and will miss you being home everyday. We will miss the good night kisses, our daily routines and family togetherness.

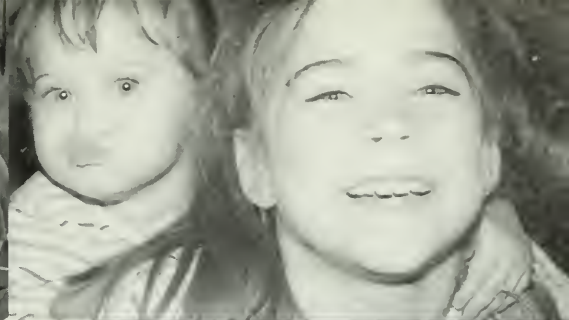

You will be leaving the life you've known at home, going away to college and the start of your future. But....no matter how far away you may be,

E.T. phone home

Love always
Dad and Mom

Sara

My lovely daughter has filled our life with unforgettable moments, perplexing moments, joyous moments, everyday moments of wonder and delight. We love you so much Sara. May your good qualities and talents sustain you and enable you to be strong in many ways, to seek your dreams in life. We are proud of your dedication, for the Love of Dance, Jazz, Tap, Ballet and Pointe.

*Love and Prayers,
Mom, Mike, Diane and Ashley*

Adriana,

Por siempre doy gracias a Dios por el poder compartir mi vida contigo, en penas y alegrías; hoy es un gran momento de reconocer el gran esfuerzo que hiciste para salir adelante, con la ayuda de Dios y de la familia. Esta suceso es solo el gran comienzo de tu carrea a seguir; para así llegar a la cúspide, con tu tenacidad y gran esfuerzo lo lograras, pero sobre todo quiero decirte que te quiero eres y seras lo mas importante de mi vida y siempre estare contigo para ayudarte y apoyarte en todo momento de tu vida y le pido a Dios que siga iluminando tu camino, Gracias a Dios.

*I LOVE YOU,
Tu Mama*

CONGRATULATIONS NICOLE!

You've always made us very proud! From the first day of school, we always knew you would do well! You have been the light of our lives. We know you will achieve all your goals.

Love, Mom & Dad

You've grown so fast and come so far... Now your future awaits you. Follow your dreams and remember you can accomplish anything! We love you very much & are so proud of you!

Dad & Teri

Sis,

We are proud of the person you are today. We will always cherish our time together with you. As you move on to a new phase of your life, may all your hopes and dreams come true. Congratulations Sis, and remember you will always be our shining star. (26 cents)

We love you

Dear Jamie Ann,

The day you were born was the day I truly believed in miracles. You were kissed on the chin by angels & you are truly my angel.

We can't believe it's time for you to go out and make all your dreams come true. We will always be there to make sure they do. We are truly blessed to have a daughter as beautiful and caring as you. You will always be our special gift. It's like Christmas everyday with you in our lives.

You are the sunshine of our lives, thank you for never taking our sunshine away. We have taught you how to soar over mountain tops and we can't believe it's time for you to fly.

We are so proud of you Jamie Ann, and it's definitely going to be a two kleenex box ordeal on Graduation Day. Jamie, always know we are here for you, always.

Love, Rich, Mom & Jill
Good Luck Sis!

To Jessica

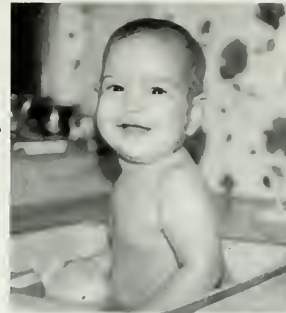

A sparkling young woman with so much to give to her family and friends so much life to live.

Ready to go independent and sure of herself and her choices life holds such allure.

I'll love you forever,
I'll like you for always,
as long as I'm living
my baby you'll be.

Love,
Mom, Josh &
Jake

Growing, maturing making choices everyday.
Forced by her life to make her own way.

Who'll ever know what life holds in store a collage of events, friends, jobs, children and more.

For my daughter I pray that your life will be full lots of love an successes with a day never dull.

Love,
Mom and Kurt

Alison,

You have been with us for such a short time, yet you have given us a lifetime of happiness! We thank you for being our daughter.

We love you.
Mom and Dad

I want to wish you luck in the future, I know you can accomplish anything. Thanks for being a great sister and friend. I'll love you forever.

Lea

I've enjoyed being your little sister (even with all the fights). I wish you the best of luck with your life, and I'll always love you.

Sara

To my Daughter,
You've been my Baby Stephens, little Peanut, sweet J.J., vivacious Jazzy, wondrous Jennifer and now grown up Jen. I have walked in front of you all these years, to guide you, to instruct and teach you, to protect you. Now, I shall step aside and walk along next to you, for you are ready to venture into the making of what you want from the rest of your life. Remember, although I will not be there to tell you what you should do each step of the way, I WILL always be there for you as your advisor, confidant, and support when ever you need me to be.

Reach for the Stars- Inspire others- Seek Truth- Dream Freely
I love you, Your Mom

Shawna
Our beautiful baby girl.

You've always been the independent, busy one!

Some of your first words, "Shawna do it", and boy, have you done it!! Making projects, putting on shows in the backyard, slumber parties, dance recitals, swimming, skiing- "Come on Mom, you can do it- CHICKEN!!!" as you dissapeared over the side of the mountain, and all I could see was the little ball on top of your hat, but i did do it! Thank you.

You've become a caring, responsible young lady, Shawna, and we are extremely proud of you and all of your accomplishments along the way. We love you very much, and will always be here for you in what ever dream you choose to follow.

You've kept us busy,
You've kept us young,
You've been a hecka lotta fun!!

We've had our ups,
and down times too,
But through it all,
Our love's been true.

On you go,
To find your way,
Know in our hearts,
You'll always stay.

We love you Punk!

Our Lovely Nina,

For 18 years, you've given us happiness, laughter, purpose, contentment, and tender tears. With graduation in sight, it's time to reflect not of losing best friends, end of homework/studies, or summer fun... but it's a time to appreciate all the wonderful friendships, travels, and memorable moments you've experienced these past four years. Graduation is another accomplished goal toward a more fulfilling and satisfying life. Adventure, new friends, and rewarding challenges await you - meet each with the same eagerness, enthusiasm, and tenacity as you've shown over the years. There's nothing keeping you from reaching your goals. We'll love you always and forever!

Biggs, Kruse Garner Soph Hop Crowns

Transforming the school cafeteria into a fantasy land filled with twinkling lights, the Sophomore Class worked hard to make the evening a memorable one. With the able assistance of advisors Mrs. Sharon Johnson and Mrs. Jeanne Glenn, they spent the time before the Sophomore Hop began working with students to "dress up" the cafeteria.

Capping the evening of delicious treats and pulse-pounding music was the announcement of Erin Kruse and Brent Biggs as the Sophomore Hop Princess and Prince. Erin and Brent were chosen by their fellow classmates.

'Too Good to Be True' Sets Theme for Prom

With the use of an older song "Too Good to Be True", the Class of 2001 enjoyed their four hours of festivities at the Concord Centre.

Decorating the festive tables with Hershey kisses and providing the juniors with refreshments was just part of the evening's activities. Balloons, colored lights and confetti turned the plain room into a magical palace for the annual Junior Prom held on May 19.

Encouraged by the DJ's music, the juniors and their dates partied "like whoa".

'The Time of Our Lives'

We have been known as the Class of 2000 since our first walk of fame at our kindergarten graduation. As the first graduating class of the new millennium, we were cautious when learning the steps of how to be a Liberty Lion, we looked up to the upperclassman who had conquered this terrifying yet terrific Liberty High School. While these role models gave us great hopes and ideas of what we would become over our next four years, we still had that fear instilled in us of that dreadful canning ritual that was practiced on the freshmen! With only high spirits we labeled our class t-shirts with a saying that would ring true throughout our stay here at Liberty; "Where no class has gone before, and for sure you can expect more." Leading us into our first year our roaring crusaders were Joe Ghiggeri as our president, Margaret Cruz as vice, Jessica Allen was treasurer, and Melinda Brown did a great job as our secretary. Sticking with us throughout the year were our class advisors Mr. Chris Calabrese and Mrs. Rose Borunda. "These Lions couldn't be bucked."

With one year under our claws and one paw down we were sophomores and our first ten received their crowns. Sophomore Hop court proudly awarded Joey Gonzalez and Jessica Allen as Sophomore Royalty. We successfully got through the year with all girls, girls, girls, girls, nothing but girls as our leadership: headed by Amanda Ortega, Margaret Cruz, Jessica Allen, and Kim Brito. Oh so stoked, we won second place in the infamous float competition. "We felt like falcon that night." Liberty's first annual Bell Game was against our rival Freedom Falcons who schooled on our campus for the past year. This was a year of getting to know many more people older and younger. Everyone began realizing that we were all in this together.

Three paws down, and one more year until we would take that bow. Role models took us through the year, the Class of 2000 was headed by Margaret Cruz, Megan Macdonald, Jessica Allen, and Joey Gonzalez. Second place again...we were doing something right! "Ahead above the rest," maybe not the best. We admitted we were not the best, but we sure tried and had a blast. "We didn't miss a thing," on that fine evening of May 8th, and we definitely had our share of Kodak moments! Here's to memories galore.

Coming into the new millennium with a heave and a ho, the Senior Class surely left their mark. We wonder if the work got easier or if we just stop fighting it and got used to the idea that it just had to be done? Either way, we did it! It's time for that end of year tradition, and it's time to let the class of two, zero, zero, zero, class of double zero go out with a bang! Our president, Jay Westerlund, started the senior year with our Homecoming Float named "Y2Kick Butt!", yet again coming in second after the Sophomore Class of 2002. Picked out of the Top 16, Michal Ward and Joey Gonzalez became Liberty High's Homecoming Queen and King. After the new year celebration, it was back to work for the seniors. With activities such as the Blood Drives and Time Capsules, we've had a busy year. We will have something to look forward to 25 years from now. The time capsules that we have buried contain memories from this year as well as this point in time. Graduation paraphernalia, swim team goggles, senior t-shirts, a disk with digital pictures of our lion statues, a district wide report card, even a Taco Bell burrito wrapper are all things that hold symbolism about our time here at Liberty. At the Senior Ball we had "The Time of Our Lives" floating around the bay under the Golden Gate. We have most certainly had four very golden years at Liberty. People argue over whether the Class of 2000 is the first of the new millennium or the last of the old millennium. We leave our pawprints while making new ones.

Seniors Rock the Boat in SF Bay

Above: Daniel Barbo boogies on down; right: "Who me?" remarks Jeremy Widman as he is caught in a candid moment by an annual staffer; below: this couple cuddles while slow dancing.

Cruising San Francisco Bay on the Hornblower became the "Time of My Life" for seniors and their dates at the Senior Ball on May 26. With cast-off scheduled for the 7:15, the Class of 2000 arrived in different modes of transportation; beautiful limos dominated the dock-side arrivals.

After the Hornblower left the dock, dinner was served on the three decks occupied by seniors, their dates and the chaperones; dinner was a choice of chicken, portabello mushroom or lasagna.

The DJ playing the music was part of the ship's crew while music was the responsibility of the Class of 2000 members.

One of the highlights of the evening was the passage under the Golden Gate Bridge. Couple and group pictures were all taken at the cafeteria prior to the Senior Ball while candid photos were taken by yearbook members with disposable cameras.

Graduation Memories for Class of 2000

With 325 graduates taking the walk onto Ohmsted Field for the last time as students of Liberty High School, the Class of 2000 bid a fond farewell to their now alma mater. Lead by class valedictorian, Alysia Peterson and salutatorians, Leslie Davis, Robert Freitas, Nicholas Matteson, Deanna Musgraves, and Erick Pearson; the Senior Class shouted out their feelings of joy as they neared the football field.

Class speaker, Christin Storrer, addressed the packed stadium before the valedictorian and salutatorians made their usual comments. On a cool, but windy, evening the cardinal and gold gowns were draped with identical white ribbons and a class medal while some students bore fresh-flower leis.

Because we started out the school year with one principal, Mr. Gene Clare, and finished the year with another, Mrs. Leslie Goldring, both shared the opening remarks before Mrs. Goldring presented the graduates to the Board as meeting all the requirements for a Liberty diploma.

Jay Westerlund, Senior Class president presented the traditional class gift to the school while Shawna Kurz made the closing remarks before the Recessional.

Agapito Granado, Jenny Lind Vocal Award Winner, and JAG members, Kevin Beckstrand, Matt Hess, and Luis Rosado-Medina did a vocal presentation.

Because this was the first event on the "new" field, parts of it were fenced off and a special ramp and to be built on both sides to accomodate the students.

Following the graduation ceremonies was the traditional all-night, grad nite held in the center of campus. With a theme of "A Brave New World 2000 and Beyond," parents and student volunteers spent most of Thursday and Friday putting up elaborate displays for the seniors and their friends. The Grad Nite was under the chairpersonship of Karen Pearson.
